Thursdays Max Morgan and Harry Lipscomb had a little difficulty which led to blows. They were reported before any damage was done, however. Lipscomb was fined $5 and costs in the City Court Friday for breach of the peace, as a consequence. This ended the matter.

The First National Bank publishes in this issue a statement of the condition of that institution at the close of business June 30, 1934, which shows a healthy and flourishing state of affairs. The First National always
